Mr. Haultain on Provincial Autonomy

The Honorable F. W. G. Haultain, member of the North-West Territories, addressed a crowded meeting in Angus Hall on Friday evening last, the hall being entirely filled, even the gallery which had been reserved for ladies. Referring to Provincial Autonomy, Mr. Haultain said:

"The Autonomy question is, in a sense, a big question to you that the transportation question is a question of more interest to you than the railroad question. Consider now what Autonomy is; Autonomy is nothing more or less than self-government. The demand for Autonomy has been nothing more or less than a demand by the people of the North-West Territories for equal rights with those of the Eastern Provinces.

Now then, in advancing this question of home rule I never went to the legislature for fun, simply because I thought it would be a more distinguished position to be Prime Minister of the Province instead of the Territories.

The reasons that were given by Sir Wilfrid Laurier for not granting us Autonomy were, lack of money and lack of capability to govern ourselves. Now we did not suppose when we came out to this country that we changed our natures very much, or became less capable of doing our own business than at home West; so we have been making a claim for self-government, and unless he can prove to us that we should be better off without it, he should not speak against Provincial government.

Large grants of land have been given to the Railway Companies. We claim these lands given to the Railway Companies; the railway companies are not building for our benefit.

Perhaps as we are getting such large grants of money from the Dominion Government we do not need Autonomy this year. For the first time we got all the grant we asked for. You will understand that I did not ask for two or three million dollars, I asked for $800,000, and the Dominion Government have given all that I asked for, considering perhaps, the pending general election. If it was a reasonable thing to give us the increase we asked for this year, then why was it not the right thing to give us what we asked for last year, the year before and the year before that as our claim this year is a just one and should be given, was not our claim of two years ago, and three, and four, and five years not equally just? And was it not our right to have our demands as equally promptly met with? We were just as much entitled then and just as much entitled to, and the Dominion Government has been giving us just about half of what we were entitled to.

Now then, we were asked to go to Ottawa; we wanted this matter taken up and we made negotiations to that effect; having done this, we were layed to go to Ottawa and a Committee was appointed to meet Mr. Scott and myself. We went to Ottawa, and after some discussion we were asked for a statement of our rights, we gave that and then we naturally sat down, and thought we were to get something. We got no reply. We finally got a reply. Mr. Scott said: 'On account of the sparseness of the population of the Territories and on account of the rapid increase of the population of the Territories we are not going to do anything at all.' We were astonished; Mr. Scott was so astonished that he practically accused the Minister of the Interior of not carrying out his promises. Sparseness of population! If sparseness of population was an argument then, is it not an argument now? Rapid increase of population! I believe our population is increasing as rapidly now as it was six years ago, and I believe that for ten or fifteen years our population will go on increasing; as Mr. Scott said, 'It will go on increasing (if) Kingdom Come.' (Applause.)

Now then, sometime ago Sir Wilfrid Laurier wrote me a letter in which he stated: 'Should my Government be succeeded, we will be prepared immediately afterwards to enter upon negotiations for the purpose of arriving at a settlement of the various questions involved in the granting of Provincial Autonomy with a view to dealing with the question at the next session of parliament'; and a great many of the Liberal members, Frank Oliver included, who have hitherto opposed Autonomy and tried to 'scare' a dreadful thing are now ready to up-hold it. Now I wonder why Sir Wilfrid Laurier wrote that letter. If the proper man who wrote that letter, so should be prepared immediately afterwards to enter upon negotiations for the purpose of arriving at a settlement of the various questions involved in the granting of Provincial Autonomy with a view to dealing with the question at the next session of parliament; and a great many of the Liberal members, Frank Oliver included, who have hitherto opposed Autonomy and tried to 'scare' a dreadful thing are now ready to up-hold it. Now I wonder why Sir Wilfrid Laurier wrote that letter.

suddenly. A gentleman of the west, a colleague of mine, wrote to Sir Wilfrid Laurier to this effect: 'It is getting near the election, and if we want the support of the North-West Territories, as of course we do, we must do something for them; we must make them some promises about the Autonomy question, or we shall be beaten.' (Applause.)

(A voice: 'How do you know he wrote that letter?') The gentleman himself told me.

Now I want to call your attention to another important fact; that is that we have so few public institutions in the Northwest Territories. Of course if we were self-governing we would look after these things for ourselves. For one thing we have no reformatory in the Northwest Territories; we have nothing in fact except a common gaol and our children, for any little miscreant are therefore put into a common gaol, where they mix with all kinds of rough characters and naturally learn a great deal of harm; whereas, if we had proper reformatories, as they have in all the Eastern Provinces, they could be put there. Mr. Haultain referred to the advantages to be derived from the Territories owning their own lands, mines and minerals and his speech was listened to with close attention by the large audience, and at the close of the meeting a number of those who were present, being introduced to the premier, assured him that, while they were formerly in doubt, they were now quite decided that this country needed a Conservative Government.

"What We Have, We'll Hold"

On Sunday evening last the annual meeting held in the interest of the Lord's Day Alliance was a decided success. The seating capacity of the Angus Hall was taxed almost to its utmost.

Rev. J. G. Shearer, Secretary of the Alliance, addressed the meeting on the Subject 'What We Have, We'll Hold.' He held his audience in wrapt attention as in a most forcible and lucid manner he set forth the desirability of holding what we now have in our beloved Canada, of proper observance of the Lord's Day.

He said it was worth holding for the nation's good. In this connection he referred to the long and tried prosperity and prowess of the British Empire and showed how to this a large degree was due to the nation's regard for the Lord's Day.

For the tollers good it was worth holding. In this connection he said that in Canada we are all tollers and whatever was good for the toller should be carefully guarded. The law of the Sabbath Day is not only written in the Bible as a Divine mandate, but it is written in the deep in the constitution of man, and man cannot disregard this law of our being any more than any other law without paying the penalty. In substantiating this position he brought forth the almost irresistible proof of Dr. A. Haeberlin, Basle, Switzerland, who has devoted much attention to careful experiments, running through many years, in the subject of Sunday rest. The result of these experiments goes to prove that the ordinary repose in the course of the day of rest and the sleep of the night are insufficient to re-establish our vital forces. A workman during a day of work expends on-sixth more energy than he could re-gain during the rest of the night. Thus it results at the end of the week in a complete exhaustion and impoverishment of the blood, the relaxation of the muscles and a fatigue of the entire system. To overcome this deficit and prevent ruin of the health, it is necessary to have a regular and complete rest every week.

If the seventh day is taken as day of rest then the system regains what was lost during the six days of toil. But if, however, the seventh day is a day of 'toll', the system becomes more depleted thereby, and in this depleted condition the toller begins a new week's labor. From week to week he becomes more and more exhausted, with the final result of being worn out in the short span of twelve years' activity, and then 'shelfed' by reason of inability, else a premature grave.

It is worth holding for the church's sake. The Sabbath Day is a strong ally of the Christian church. Indeed it is the right arm of the church—that greatest of earthly institutions for the enlightenment of mankind. If the proper
